Ansh With Montreal.

While Montreal dld not land Trues dale, it got another infielier of big league caliber in Kenneth Nash from the St. Louis Nationals.

Nash, who is a figurer Brown varsity star, is row in the Massa Suscits Legislature, and he refused to join the Cardinals. He asked to be sent to some climpter home. Dan Howley, the Montreal leader, has given Nash permission to report late, on May 15.

Had Nash consented to go South with the Cards he would undoubtedly lave been retained by Huggins, who avowed he was sorry the legislator did not like playing in St. Louis.

NEW YORK, April 19.—All doubt as to the genuineness of the sale of the Newark International Learne Club was dispelled last night by a positive statement by Ed Barrow, president of the circuit.

"There have been insinuations that the Newark Club was not really sold to George Solomon and Charles II, Medicus tundeness, and I challenge anybody to come forward and prove otherwise.

"Solomon and Medicus are now in full control of the club. They own 352 shares out of 406, having purchased from Mossys. Ebbets and McKeever their 202 shares Solomon has long owned seventy-live shares, while Henry W. Medicus turned over to his son the seven inning played.

In the National the new leaders are Pat Moran, of the Phillies, who displaced Charlie Pooin, who has gone to the Reds as a catcher, and Roger Hank O'Day's place as a leader of the Cubs. In the Johnson circuit Rill Donovan takes the leadership of the Yan-kees, in place of Frank Chance, while Clarence Rowland, graduate of the Three-I League, makes his big league debut as head of the White Sox.

In the Pederal circuit the only new manager is Lee Magee, the former Cardinal, who jumped to the Brookfeds and displaced Bill Bradley.

IT STRIKES ME

Richmond took a game at last. A few of the runs needed last week were brought out of cold storage. And some of the players fattened their declining batting averages at the expense of the Trinity twirlers.

The team moves on to Raleigh to-day for a two-ply setto with Earl Mack's aggregation. Then back home to put on the finishing touches before getting down to the regular grind.

TIGERS DEFEAT JACKETS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Hampden-Sidney Gets Best of Randolph-Macon in Fast Contest.

Race for Title Will Be Close This

Year-Game Yesterday Was Featured by Brisk Playing, With Tigers Showing Better Form.

Murray, in right field for Hampden-Sidney, made a beautiful catch of a line drive in the seventh, and Hodges, on first, made some pretty stops of bad pegs. The team backed up Carrington in great form and went through the entire game without a miscue. Handolph-Macon was guilty of five errors and showed inexperience, and a slight falling off in the famous Yellow Jacket pep.
